FLY ON THE WALL THEATRE presents

A Staged Reading of A Skull in Connemara by Martin McDonagh

"Isn't it illegal in the Catholic faith to bury a body the willy still attached? Isn't it a sin in the eyes of the Lord?"

Toronto, ON - Fly on the Wall Theatre is pleased to present a Staged Reading of Martin McDonagh's acclaimed play: A Skull in Connemara - the second in his celebrated Leenane Trilogy (which includes The Beauty Queen of Leenane and The Lonesome West).

Each September, Mick Dowd stoically carries out the grim task of making room at his overcrowded local cemetery, by exhuming the remains of those buried in old gravesites. But this year is different. This year, he learns it's time to dig up the section containing his wife's grave, and he's forced to confront the rumours that have been swirling around him since her untimely death seven years earlier.

Directed by Rod Ceballos (cited by Now Magazine for Outstanding Direction/2013 Toronto Fringe), the reading will take place at Fionn MacCool's Restaurant/Pub (181 University Avenue) on October 20th and 21st, 2013.

A Skull in Connemara features Dora Award winner Rosemary Dunsmore, Kelly Penner (The Railway Children & Shaw Festival), Rod Ceballos (The Weir) and David Mackett (Cold Comfort/Outstanding Performance - Now Magazine). Alex Crowther (Lady Julie) reads Stage Directions.

Have a pint, hear a play as Fly on the Wall Theatre launches its second season of Play Readings at Fionn MacCool's in Toronto's Financial District.
